That is what the Antrim Family called their mission trip this summer!

Instead of going on a regular vacation, this family decided to come and hold babies in an orphanage and play with children who never had a loving family. read more...

Dr. Slava never thought that a colleague from Canada would come to meet the children he takes care of in Russia.

This summer, two pediatricians, working on two different continents, met and shared their work experience working with babies.

No translator was needed, as they shared their similarities as pediatricians. Realizing that across the oceans, some things are similar, yet others are starkly different. read more...

A boy runs away from the orphanage, just to make soup for his mother.

Black rubber shoes, a few sizes too big, dusty feet, grey shorts and t-shirt, skinny body and huge kind eyes - this is our Misha. Two years ago his alcoholic mother was denied parental rights. The 12 year old boy was placed in an orphanage, 60 miles from home. Throughout these 2 years, Misha has run away 20 times from the orphanage and walked home on the highway - just to feed his mother... Read more...

→ The Mendakov Family is on the road!

Tatiana and Michael, with their daughter Liana, will be traveling across the southern U.S. States in September, fundraising and recruiting.

If you would like them to visit you and/or your church/university please email us.

Please pray for safe travels and finances. If you would like to support the Mendakov Family, click here.
