

March 2009

Abandoned babies developing severe rashes, due to lack of diapers.

URGENT!

Diapers for abandoned HIV babies

Give now

Donate Now!

Who We Are

Volunteer!

join our mailing list

Make a Donation Now!

Greetings,

Welcome to Sunergos International Newsletter!

We are excited to share with you about our ministry in Russia and give you ways to participate!

Share Warmth! Clothe a Child!

Soon it will be spring! As usual, it will come very unexpectedly, on a day we expect it to be snowing! It will take bloom everywhere, on every field and every play ground. Many parents will go shopping for new clothes for their children, who have miraculously outgrown their entire wardrobe over winter! That is wonderful! Taking care of your children is very important.

But for the children who are orphans, living on the streets, in the sewers, life takes a nasty turn... There is no one who can buy them a new pair of shoes, a new pair of socks, a new pair of pants and a shirt...

That child will be forced to find any possible ways to find something to wear... Finding someone to help him is almost impossible, so his options are - stealing or being naked... be that someone...

Diapers for abandoned babies!

"As I walked into a baby orphanage, I was horrified! Babies were wrapped in old folded cloth, instead of diapers. They have laid there for hours, some the whole day, developing severe rashes, which are torture for a little infant..."

Government provides only 1 diaper a day for each child! A baby needs 5-8 diapers per day, not just one.

We cannot stay indifferent, so we have started a drive to collect diapers. We need your help. read more... a partnership of 5 years...

Transit Center - "Fedor"

A center for abandoned and runaways. Houses children and teens from the former Soviet Union, who have found themselves abandoned and abused by their parents. Sunergos is working alongside the Transit Center's Staff, enabling, empowering, and giving hope... read more...

Interview with Sonya... by Jillian Bittner

Sonya is a beautiful fourteen-year-old with long, dark hair tied in ribbons. She has a contagious smile and laugh, but when talking about her family or past she does neither. Normally playful and talkative, she now sits slumped in a chair with her eyes focused on the floor... read more...

Visit our website for more stories, needs and information.

Email us if with questions, concerns or feedback. We would love to hear from you!

Sunergos International

24 Roy Street, Suite 191, Seattle, WA 98109

info@SunergosInternational.org | www.SunergosInternational.org

Thank you for taking the time to read our newsletter.

We invite you to take part in our ministry. All gifts are tax-deductable.

Sunergos International is a 501(c)3 non-profit corporation. | Copyright © 2009 Sunergos International